Spend a day at Shenzhen Guanlan for fun and food!

There are many attractions in Guanlan. First, get to the Niuhu Community for the century-old Guanlan Print Village and Aohu Art Village, both featuring designs typical to Hakka terraces. There are also ancestral halls, Hakka homes and watchtowers. The white walls and grey tiles are a reminder of the old times. Modern printmaking workshops and ancient Hakka villages together give a distinctive cultural experience. Many artists set up studios there for their creative endeavours.
