

【Shenzhen】 Retro Korean barbecue restaurant
Enjoy your bulgogi in a recreated iconic K-drama scene!

	Korean cuisine continues to ride on the wave of Korean dramas, with grilled meat being the top pick. Enzejia Korean BBQ Restaurant (恩澤家韓式烤肉店) has gained so much popularity as it pays tribute to the barbecue restaurant off a side street featured in "Reply 1988", an iconic Korean drama. At the shop entrance, you will be greeted by an utterly instagrammable Korean door frame and a pink bench; and inside, traditional Korean décor and signboards that mimic the nostalgic vibe of Korean street shops in the old days. Serving a vast selection of food in excellent quality and authentic style, the eatery presents a great feast to both your camera and tummy.
	Grilled meat is the signature dish of the house, which will tickle your taste buds with Korean dipping sauce and lettuce wrap. The most ordered items include black pork belly, brisket, short ribs and Boston butt, and are accompanied by various sides such as appetizers, vegetable platter, cheesy egg roll and rice to make for a soul-satisfying experience. You can even have a waiter/waitress do the grilling to ensure the food is perfectly cooked. Simply relax and enjoy the meal!
	Besides BBQ, the restaurant also serves classic Korean dishes such as tofu soup, spicy stir-fried rice cakes, cold noodles, army stew, kimchi pancake, rice roll, fried chicken and bibimbap. These delicious dishes which come in large portion can meet your cravings for Korean food and are ideal for a get-together with friends.
	Inside the restaurant, you can find the exact round tables and chairs seen in barbecue restaurants in Korea as well as posters and stills of "Reply 1988" hung on the wall. Fans of the "Reply" drama series will definitely be thrilled. If you are a Korean enthusiast, you'd better hit the road now!
