

【Shenzhen】 One Avenue One-stop art mall and new photo hotspot!

Located in the heart of Futian CBD, One Avenue consists of 4 themed malls, an 800-metre-long central avenue, 2 independent buildings, 16 public spaces, a cultural zone and a memorial hall, all to offer an open-space shopping experience -- a popular trend in Shenzhen in recent years. International retail, themed dining, humanities and arts, cinematic entertainment, and quality parenting time can all be experienced at the mall. With sculptures, themed plazas and art installations placed inside and outside the venue, One Avenue is filled with artistic atmosphere, making it an ideal place for photo lovers!

The Central Avenue is a must-go photo hotspot with the sculpture by famous Chinese sculptor Sui Jianguo and the cloud-shape iconic work. The semi-open atrium in the complex gives natural lighting. Posing for a pretty photo here is a piece of cake! Short-term art exhibitions are held at the themed plazas from time to time. Now you can have more opportunities to get close to art.

Different large-scale art installations are hung on the ceilings and across different floors within the venue. You can appreciate the artworks from different angles on different levels. Art is indeed the theme of this venue!

The “Fashion Street” art window exhibition is jointly created by four illustrators. It is full of vitality and has become another photo hotspot!

There are a number of popular restaurants in the complex. The camera eats first and you eat well. Try AUVERS for the top brunch spot in town, or Wan Chu for ancient Anhui cuisine, or Banu Hot Pot for the best beef tripe. And of course, there is the local sensation Nayuki Tea & Bakery. Unlike ordinary stores, its decoration and products are all ingenious. With gold and blue as the main hues, the store highlights the fashionable style. In a large space with three floors, there is a coffee shop, an exclusive gift shop, and a claw machine zone. And there is even a liquor tavern, where you can sit down and have some nice wine with your friends after a long walk!
