

【Shenzhen】 A Mall of Fun at UniWalk
A diversity of thematic experiences and entertainment!

Spanning an area of 360,000 square metres in proximity to the MTR station, UniWalk in Bao'an District has more to offer than simply a shopping mall, with its "endless" and diverse thematic experiences and entertainment for children. UniWalk provides a great variety of child-oriented shops and workshops, including the Pitman's Mining Town which can facilitate the development of children's observation and cognitive skills through a fun mining experience. What's more, children are welcome to burn their energy in the various facilities, such as the maze, sandpit, fishing pond, LEGO, trampoline and slide, in the Meland Amusement Park. The mall also takes pride in being home to Reading Mi, which has been repeatedly named the "Bookstore of the Year". Positioning itself as "a massive study room for urban families", this family-friendly bookstore offers ample room for parent-child reading with its splendid and classy interior design.

In the mood for food after a fun day? We highly recommend SpaceLab. Use the self-ordering service with iPad and have your dishes served to you via a 150-metre spiral slide – a must-have experience for your kids!
