【Shenzhen】Veggie dining in style
Groundbreaking vegetarian experience!

Dubbed "Veggie Dining in Style", Planet Green at UpperHills, Shenzhen, enjoys great popularity with long lines of diners at mealtimes. In contrast to its modern simplistic décor, the restaurant enchants diners with an intricate blend of Chinese and Western cuisine.

Here plant-based meats are processed and presented in such an astounding way that puts their meat counterparts to shame. Contrary to traditional vegetarian food which is bland in taste, their delicious, delicate and chewy offerings bring an eye-opening meat-free experience to everyone. A mouthful of their signature delicacies, such as Deep-fried Taro Patty, Green Hamburger, Crispy Bites and Exotic Skewers, would leave you a lasting impression.

Apart from these amazing meat substitutes, the eatery also serves dishes with natural organic vegetables like Tofu Pot with Perilla. Made of spirulina tofu and topped with perilla leaves and okra, the dish becomes popular for its soft and smooth texture.

To go an extra mile for kids who dislike vegetables, the restaurant also provides lovely kids' meals so that no one is left behind in a happy vegetarian dining experience.
