

【Shenzhen】 Largest indoor playground Over 50 games for all at one go!

Stretching over 10,000 square metres, “PartyDay” at Wanda Plaza stands as the largest indoor wonderland in Shenzhen catering to people of all ages, who will find endless delight even after a full day of exploration. No wonder it tops the chart of Exciting Experience in Shenzhen on DianPing.

Fitness and finesse are challenged in more than 50 activities, ranging from karting, ice skating in a real snow rink, and live-action combat simulation (CS) to bowling, archery and dodgems. Among them, the most sought-after amusements are the high-speed and adrenaline-pumping kart and dodgem rides.

There is something for everyone in the playground, with trampolines and zip lines for parent-child moments; basketball, table tennis, bowling and other ball games for group visitors to improve their coordination and communication skills; and live-action CS games and somatosensory virtual reality (VR) games for adrenaline junkies. But why not enjoy all of them and have a blast with your buddies when the ticket allows unlimited time of exploration and access to the facilities?
