

【Shenzhen】 Enjoying life with vegetarian food Embracing vegetarianism with innovative and exquisite dishes!

Founded in Guangzhou, “Tianyushui Tea & Vegetable” is a fine dining vegetarian restaurant that inherits the Chinese culinary culture through vegetable and tea, which are seasonally appropriate and have the same origin as Chinese medicine. From the dishes to the space, every detail highlights the aesthetics of vegetarianism. Every dish can be traced back to its roots. In the pursuit of innovation and excellence in preparing exquisite vegetarian dishes, the restaurant designs set menus according to the seasons.

Some of the most popular dishes include the smoked white ferula mushrooms with pine needles, where the aroma of pine needles is topped with fresh mushrooms, garnished with a black pepper sauce which has the flavour of beef without the greasiness of meat. The organic celtuce with pepper sauce is a combination of crunchy celtuce and fragrant pepper foam, which is both refreshing and stimulating to the taste buds. Apart from regular meals, the restaurant also serves afternoon tea, which is rated as the best by many diners in the Shenzhen vegetarian community. The restaurant’s ambience is of great oriental beauty and the rooms are private and quiet.
