MTR's 45th Anniversary Carnival "Chill Fun Trainival" Celebrated with 80,000 Visitors Sharing Joyful Railway Memories with the Community

In celebration of the MTR Corporation's 45th anniversary, the company organised its first-ever large-scale outdoor railway-themed carnival, "Chill Fun Trainival," at the Central Harbourfront Event Space. The five-day carnival from 25-29 September attracted about 80,000 attendees, who enjoyed various railway-themed games, photo spots and fun moments together.

Dr Jacob Kam, Chief Executive Officer of MTR Corporation said, "Since the beginning of this year, the Corporation has initiated a series of activities to celebrate the 45th anniversary of the commencement of our metro service with the community. We are grateful to the community for their enthusiastic support and participation in all our events. Moving forward, we will continue to foster connections with the community, journeying together with people from all walks of life."

The "Chill Fun Trainival" featured five main themed zones, allowing visitors to immerse themselves in the close connection between the MTR and the community through a diverse range of interactive games and amusement facilities. Moreover, over 10,000 limited-edition railway souvenirs were distributed, creating joyful railway memories for participants. Among the various attractions, the first outdoor train driver training simulator in Hong Kong proved to be a crowd favorite, offering individuals of all ages the chance to experience the role of a train captain. Furthermore, a series of MTR maintenance vehicles made their debut appearance in public at the carnival, providing an opportunity for the visitors to meet these unsung heroes of the railway.

Every evening, the "Chill Fun Trainival Live Jam" featured performances by renowned local singers and performers, promoting the city's cultural arts. The grand finale performance of a classic tune by popular singer Hins Cheung captivated the audience, evoking nostalgia and celebrating the precious moments of the MTR's 45th anniversary of connecting with the community.
